

My name is Susan Marzan. I lived on 110th Street in the 50's & 60's with my Grandmother "Lala" in building # 2125. I was so happy to come across your website!

.... am wondering if you knew my Mother. Her name was Helen and she was also known as "Sugar". Her Sister (My Aunt) is Pilar Also known as "Vickie".

In some of your photos I see my Uncle Angelo also known as "Jerry".

Warmest Regards,

Susan

Below is a picture of me and my Uncle Bill Valentin

Ten-year-old Florencio Valintino, of 210 E. 102nd St., is all brotherly pride as he crowns a real live doll—sister Susan, 3½—after she was chosen "Queen of the Show" at Boys' Club of New York's 6th annual Little Sister Beauty Contest. Event was held in Central Park Clubhouse, 1295 5th Ave. He was among scores of lads who paraded their kid sisters before the judges. Prizes also were awarded for prettiest smile, eyes, curls.

1. My Mother: Helen (Sugar), Me & my Father Pepie.

2. Left to Right- My Aunt Vickie, Unknown female, My Grandmother Lala, My Great Grandmother Belen and my Aunt Romona.

3. My Brother Manny (Joe) & Me

4. Me & My Brother Joe (Manny)

5. My Aunt Vickie & her Husband Raymond Oquendo

6. My Mother (Helen) Sugar & Me

7. Left to right - Top row- My Uncle Greg, My aunt Vickie, My Uncle Bill (Baby) Bottom row- My Mother Helen (Sugar) & my aunt Romona

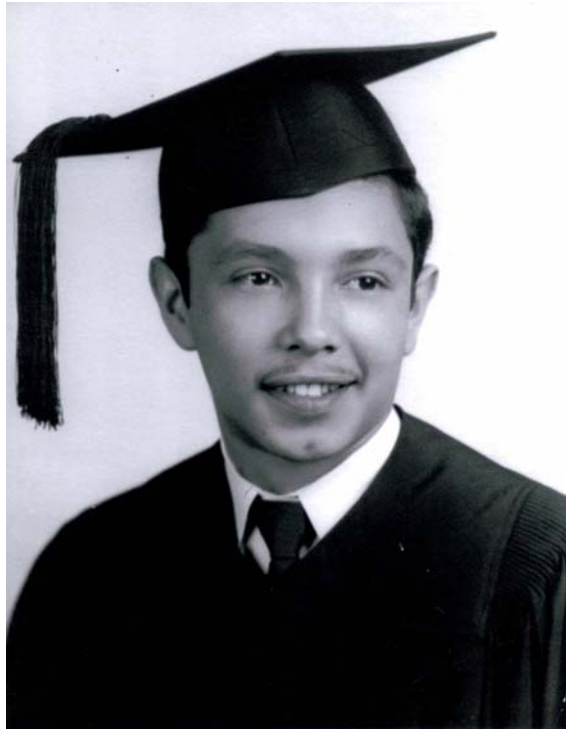

8. My Aunt Vickie on the Cover of Jet magazine

10. My Mother Sugar in Central Park

11. My Father Joe (Pepie) Marzan

12. Left to right - My grandmother Goya Marzan, 2 unknown females & her Brother Benny Marzan (she lived in the 35)

13. My Father Joe (Pepie) & Me at a 110th street reunion party.

14. My Grandmother (Lala) Conrada Valentin

